BAND CONCERT AT WESTERLY

Enjoyed by Crowd at Wilcox Park—Arrest for Violation of Liquor Laws—Loose Dynamite Cartridges Cause Excitement—Masonic Eulogized for Alonzo Harmon

Although no appropriation has been made by the town for concerts for three years, and as a result no band has played in the park in that period, there will be weekly concerts in the park for the balance of the season, by the Westerly band. This is made possible by the offer of the trustees of Wilcox park, who offered to give dollars for every letter in the firm's name, by the public, and also to feel the public pulse as to whether there was a demand for a return of the band concerts during the summer season.

The sum required for the balance of the season was $200, and therefore, the people were asked to make contributions of one dollar, and this thirty citizens did, while one business concern gave ten dollars, a dollar for every letter in the firm's name.
The first concert was given in the park Wednesday evening by the Westerly band and was enjoyed by an immense audience. The following programme was rendered under the direction of Leader Charles O. Gavitt: Hail, Columbus! Boy of the Millie, Sunshine and Shower, Heart Murmurs, Polka Cappellos, cornet solo by Mr.
Gavitt, medley of popular airs, My Sweet, Boy of the Millie, The Sunset, America, Ye Ancient and Star Spangled Banner.

Several weeks ago five residents of Pierce street and vicinity were before the Third district court and tried on charges of violating the liquor laws, and the cases are now pending in the superior court. Subsequently, Deputy International Revenue Collector, James H. Brown, and his men, ascertained that they had no government license to sell liquor at retail.
They were notified to visit the office of the collector of internal revenue in Providence and pay the license fee, and costs, which they all did, except Charles Gabrielle, who says he was of opinion that his case had been settled by his attorney with the rest.

Wednesday, Deputy United States Marshal Richard F. Stone, came to Westerly and with the assistance of Chief Brandfield arrested Gabrielle on the charge of selling liquor at retail and without government license. The accused was arraigned before United States Commissioner William P. Cross in Providence, Wednesday afternoon, and bonds for appearance for trial in the United States district court were fixed at $500. The bond was furnished and Gabrielle was released from custody.

At a recent exhibition of little oil sketches at the Salmagundi club, New York, there was one painted by Walter Douglas, a former resident of Stonington, and entitled A Mixed Crowd, in which a flock of half breed pigeons at a trough is reproduced. The painting is owned by W. S. Eaton.
Another picture of interest was Noah Duck, painted by Guy S. Wingate, and owned by Frank S. Turnbull. These are two of the seventeen pictures selected as typical examples of the Thum-Blox Sketches, from an exhibit of over 500.

They are sketches made with a small box of colors held on the thumb and arranged, when open, to serve as a palette and easel, and designated as "thumb-box sketches." The largest pictures in the exhibit were not more than six by nine inches, and were made attractive by the breadth and dash, and boldness in use of color.

Tony Petronoso, employed in the Klondike quarry, was severely injured while at his work Wednesday morning. He was handling a heavy iron bar, assisting in moving a big block of granite, when the bar point slipped and the end of the bar struck the man full in the face. The front upper teeth were broken, the upper lip lacerated and the jawbone injured. The superior maxillary bone was broken and the lower lip was opened to the length of the mouth. Five stitches were required to close this wound.

The bar, which weighs over a hundred pounds, also struck Tony in the breast and may have caused internal injury. He was attended by Dr.
Scanton.

The dust nuisance in Dixon square and vicinity is becoming unbearable, but the highway committee has announced that dust laying will soon be received and that there will be abatement of the nuisance. The committee in their opinion, think that oil can also be applied to the paved portions of High, Canal, and Main streets.

There is a rumor that there is a deal on for the purchase of the watering cart from William Brook, who was forced from the business by the use of oil on most of the streets of his route, thereby decreasing his receipts to a non-paying basis. There are a few who assert that there is a darkened political individual in this special woodpile, who can see no economy in the town taking over a non-paying business from an individual.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twentytwo per cent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirtyseven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. A. F. Peeler, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy." Dr. E. Down, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in my practice for many years with great satisfaction to myself and benefit to my patients."

Dr. Edward Parrish, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild laxative effect and freedom from harm."

Dr. J. B. Elliott, of New York City, says: "Having during the past six years prescribed your Castoria for infantile stomach disorders, I most heartily commend its use. The formula contains nothing deleterious to the most delicate of children."

Dr. C. G. Sprague, of Omaha, Neb., says: "Your Castoria is an ideal medicine for children, and I frequently prescribe it. While I do not advocate the indiscriminate use of proprietary medicines, yet Castoria is an exception for conditions which arise in the care of children."

Dr. J. A. Parker, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact, it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."

Dr. H. F. Merrill, of Augusta, Me., says: "Castoria is one of the very finest and most remarkable remedies for infants and children. In my opinion your Castoria has saved thousands from an early grave. I can furnish hundreds of testimonials from this locality as to its efficiency and merits."

Dr. Norman M. Geer, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "During the last twelve years I have frequently recommended your Castoria as one of the best preparations of the kind, being safe in the hands of parents and very effective in relieving children's disorders, while the ease with which such a pleasant preparation can be administered is a great advantage."

CLERGYMAN SUES.
Asks $5,000 for Injuries in Automobile Accident—Insurance Company Interested.

The Norwalk Hour says: Rev. Herbert S. Brown, of Darien has brought civil action for $5,000 against Archibald C. Foss, the prominent real estate agent of New York, and South Norwalk. Deputy Sheriff Samuel C.
Ireland served the papers this morning, but attachment was waived and the matter will go to trial without inconvenience to Mr. Foss. It is understood that the action is to be defended by the insurance company in which Mr. Foss held a policy, and that otherwise there would have been no action, as Mr. Foss and Rev. Mr. Brown are very close friends.

The incident to Mr. Brown happened on the 21st of last January. While Mr. Foss was going through Darien in his large Lancia car, his chauffeur, Oliver Hazen, attempted to turn out for a team, and ran into Mr. Brown.
Mr. Brown was on the right hand side of the road.

Mr. Brown was knocked from his wheel, and for a time it was feared that he was killed. His scalp was laid open for an awful gash and one of his legs was broken. Mr. Foss took him in the automobile and hurried him to the Stamford hospital. He then remained at the post of duty and ran back and forth between the hospital and the home for some time with the bulletins.

In Mr. Brown's complaint it is alleged that Mr. Brown was laid up for five months and was seriously and permanently affected. Furthermore, Mrs.
Brown, who was ill, had just been sent to Clifton Springs, and because of the accident had to be recalled, while the accident was serious in its consequences to her as well.

Another contention of the plaintiff is that the machine of Mr. Foss was not equipped with a bell or horn and that the driver was going at an undue and reckless rate of speed at the time of the accident. The case will be heard in the higher court at Bridgeport.

Victory for Lobstermen.
Lobster fishermen who set pots in the lower New Haven harbor have news from the light-house department that they can now set their traps breakwaters without fear of interference from the keepers of the lighthouses. This means a big victory for several gangs of lobster fishermen who have been waging war upon the keepers of the lighthouses, whom they say have been monopolizing all the lobster fishing territory close to the east and west breakwaters.

BUILDING INSPECTOR ACTS
Orders Operations Stopped on Levy Building, Ansonia, Which Was Gutted by Fire on July 17.

Daniel Corcoran, who succeeded John Dwyer as building inspector, last month, performed his first official act Tuesday noon, when he stopped work on the rebuilding of the Levy cinder washing plant and rag warehouse on Jersey street, which was gutted by fire July 17. Permission was asked of the aldermen Monday night to reconstruct the building and tack on a 25x25 addition. As the matter was one for the building inspector to take care of, no action was taken. It was reported that work on the construction of the building had already been started, but this was said not to be the case.

Levy seemed to take it for granted, however, that it would be all right to after asking the aldermen, and this
